(Academic Bank of Credits) AAPAR ID

All the II,III,IV-B.Tech and II-M.Tech & MBA students are here by informed that those who are submitted correct information of Automated Permanent Academic Account Registry (APAAR) identity (ID), their academic results have uploaded to ABC (Academic Bank of Credits) portal. All are requested to verify results data and if any discrepancies found, bring them to the notice of the controller of examinations on or before 25.09.2025.

Those who have submitted incorrect data and wrong AAPAR ID not they are requested to submit necessary data immediately.

How AAPAR is useful?

The APAAR ID is linked to Academic Bank of Credits (ABC) & DigiLocker, an online repository, where students securely access their essential documents like exam results & academic credentials and documents. It receives academic credits of students directly from institutions and awarding bodies through the National Academic Depository. Thus being a single source of truth, this streamlines authentication for transfers, entrance examinations, admissions or job applications, simplifying the verification of academic records.

Note: 1. NO AAPAR ID :- AAPAR ID Not submitted / Not created.
